DEBTORS-APPELLANTS' STATEMENT OF THE ISSUES
AND DESIGNATION OF RECORD ON APPEAL
FOR SECOND CIRCUIT CASE NOS. 22-85 AND 22-110

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 6(b)(2)(B)(i), Purdue Pharma L.P. and its affiliated debtors<sup>1</sup> (“Debtors” or “Purdue”) respectfully submit this statement of the issues to be presented and designations of items to be included in the record on appeal with respect to the following appeals pending before the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit: Case No. 22-85 and Case No. 22-110 (together, the “Appeals”).

STATEMENT OF THE ISSUES TO BE PRESENTED ON APPEAL

1. Whether the District Court erred in concluding that the Bankruptcy Court lacked authority to confirm a chapter 11 plan of reorganization containing non-consensual third-party releases, including by disregarding Second Circuit precedent authorizing such releases in rare circumstances when such releases play an important part in the success of a chapter 11 plan of reorganization. This is a legal issue that is reviewed de novo.

2. Whether the District Court erred in holding that bankruptcy courts lack constitutional authority to enter a final order confirming a chapter 11 plan of reorganization that contain non-consensual third party releases. This is a legal issue that is reviewed de novo.

3. Whether the District Court otherwise erred in vacating the Bankruptcy Court's order confirming the Debtors' chapter 11 plan of reorganization ("Plan"), including because the Bankruptcy Court correctly determined that (i) the non-consensual releases reflected in Section 10.7 of the Plan meet the requirements under governing Second Circuit law; (ii) the Plan satisfies the requirements of the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution; (iii) the Plan is consistent with the Bankruptcy Clause of the United States Constitution; (iv) the settlement with Purdue's shareholders (the Sackler families) that is reflected in the Plan is fair and equitable under governing Second Circuit law; and (v) the Plan satisfies section 1129(a)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code. A Bankruptcy Court's factual findings are reviewed for clear error, its legal conclusions are reviewed de novo, and the Bankruptcy Court's approval of the reasonableness of a settlement is reviewed for abuse of discretion.

The Debtors reserve the right to seek leave to amend or supplement to these issues in the opening brief.

DESIGNATION OF ITEMS
TO BE INCLUDED IN THE RECORD ON APPEAL

The following items from the jointly-administered lead bankruptcy cases and adversary proceedings and from the consolidated district court appeals are to be included in the record on appeal in the Appeals. For the avoidance of doubt, each designated item shall include any and all exhibits and documents annexed to and referenced within such items.

24	ORDER TO ALL COUNSEL: The deluge of letters has begun. It stops now. I will not allow this matter to be litigated by letter. So stop writing them. I am not going to read them. I am a stickler for proper procedure, especially in a case like this one. I need a list of all issues that you want addressed to be sent to chambers by 9 AM on Tuesday, October 12, in advance of our afternoon session. Any issue that has been raised by letter and any issue that you are thinking of raising by letter between now and Tuesday, must be on that list, or we will not be discussing it on Tuesday. Since the issue of who is properly deemed an appellee has been raised, I will expect briefs to be filed by Tuesday morning on that question. Quite a few entities seem to have participated in the confirmation hearing, but this is an appeal and there are rules about who is a party to an appeal. I note that Advisory Opinion 100 identified certain entities (such as the UCC) as "parties" to a bankruptcy proceeding for conflict of interest purpose; if there is authority for the proposition that those entities either are or are not properly listed as appellees in this matter (assuming they did not file a notice of appeal), then I expect you to direct me to it. But not by letter. In the future, any applications for rulings from the court must be made by notice of motion accompanied by a short (and I mean short) brief. If this is going to be a frequent occurrence, I will come up with rules that must be followed to bring issues to my attention. But it should not be a frequent occurrence. This is an appeal, folks, not a second confirmation hearing. I am obviously expecting a number of amicus motions, and we will set a timetable on Tuesday for the making of such motions and for very quick responses thereto. What I want to discuss on Tuesday are: how soon we can get the principal issue on appeal briefed and argued, and what other aspects of Judge Drain's order are being appealed and by whom. I would also like to know whether anyone is	10/7/2021

	planning to try to move this appeal directly to the Second Circuit (we read the press too, you know). Everything else, frankly, is collateral. I hope you have a pleasant holiday weekend. Please remember that the court is closed on Monday. I will see you Tuesday afternoon. By the way, while we are trying to find an "over flow" courtroom, there are many matters on the calendar here at the Moynihan Courthouse on Tuesday, and so far we have been unable to find one. I expect that access for those not actively participating in the conference will be by phone. We will keep you informed. So Ordered. (Signed by Judge Colleen McMahon on 10/7/2021)
27	SCHEDULING CONFERENCE: The purpose of this order is to provide logistics for the scheduling conference to be held on Tuesday, October 12, 2021, at 2 PM in the Daniel Patrick Moynihan United States Courthouse at 500 Pearl Street. The conference will be held in Room 24A. Only lawyers who have a speaking role should appear in person for this conference. Due to social distancing requirements, we cannot accommodate entire teams of lawyers, and those who are not speaking may not be permitted in the room. Other counsel and members of the public are invited to dial in to the conference at the following number: 888-363-4749, access code 9054506. All are reminded that video or audio recording is prohibited by law. 29	TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER PENDING ARGUMENT ON THE UNITED STATES TRUSTEES MOTION FOR A STAY (FILED AT DOCKET # 21 CV 7532; 21 CV 7961; 21 CV 7966; 21 CV 7969; 21 CV 8034; 21 CV 8042; 21 CV 8049; 21 CV 8055; 21 CV 8139) McMahon, J.: The United States Trustee has anticipated by two days one of the items on MY agenda for our conference on Tuesday, that being the question of a stay pending appeal. This court is all too familiar with the doctrine of equitable mootness as applied in the Second Circuit, as it has upended my ability to decide at least one previous bankruptcy appeal. I am also aware of the fact that the issue is presently under consideration at the United States Supreme Court, which will resolve it one way or the other this term. I have no intention of allowing the critically important issues on appeal to be equitably mooted, and I had intended to ask the parties about their views on a stay when we got together. Now that I have a formal motion, I intend to resolve the question ON TUESDAY, with oral argument. As long as I have jurisdiction to enter a stay pending appeal I fully intend to do so, unless some opponent comes up with an argument that I cannot presently anticipate. (though I will listen to what anyone has to say). The stay will be conditioned on adherence to an expedited briefing schedule for the appeal. I am given to understand that the automatic stay following confirmation has already expired. Accordingly, sufficient cause appearing therefor, I hereby enter this temporary restraining order staying the effectiveness and implementation of the Bankruptcy Courts orders of September 15 and 17, 2021, from which appeals have been	10/10/2021

	taken to this court (the Advance Order and the Confirmation Order, respectively), as well as oral confirmation order dated September 1, 2021, and any other orders of which I might not be aware that are implicated by the pendency of these appeals. We will take this matter up on the merits on Tuesday. This order shall be docketed in all pending appeals. BY ECF TO ALL COUNSEL (Signed by Judge Colleen McMahon on 10/10/2021).

After reviewing the motions and the accompanying submissions, it seems clear that both the Multi-State Governmental Entities Group and the Ad Hoc Group of Individual Victims of Purdue Pharma L.P., et al. argued the issues that are being contested on appeal before the Bankruptcy Court. Their intervention motions are, therefore, granted, as I said they would be at the conference, and they shall henceforth be deemed Appellees in all the pending appeals. The Ad Hoc Committee of NAS Children admits that it did not argue the contested issues below, so its motion for leave to intervene as appellee is denied. The Clerk is directed to close the motions at Dockets 44, 46 and 48 in the Master Case at 21-cv-7532. Harrington in case 7:21-cv-07969-CM. I received over the weekend a motion from the U.S. Trustee	10/18/2021

	for "clarification" of the court's order dated October 14, 2021. (Docket No. 64). In addition to its request for clarification, the U.S. Trustee asks the court to order the Debtors to provide this court with a weekly written accounting of any activities that it takes between now and the date when this court decides the pending appeal- presumably so Appellants can assess, in light of the doctrine of equitable mootness, whether or not the time to move anew for a stay pending appeal has come. I confess error. I had believed, following our lengthy conference of last week, that the only preparatory actions being taken by the Debtors prior between now and the Effective Date were being undertaken pursuant to the Advance Order. Apparently I was mistaken in that belief; some actions that would allow for quick effectuation of the Plan are being undertaken, or may be undertaken, pursuant to the authority of Paragraph 8 of the Confirmation Order. I had intended for the stipulation on which my denial of a stay pending appeal was conditioned to include all such actions, regardless of which Order authorized them; in my effort to be quite precise, I caused the order to be erroneous. I therefore correct the order so that the first full paragraph on page 13 reads as follows: as further set forth herein. This is entirely my fault, and I apologize, especially to Appellees and others who signed with alacrity a stipulation that apparently does not cover all that I intended it to cover. (Docket No. 62). I emphasize this is a correction- not a clarification, and certainly not reconsideration. It is what I intended all along. And I think all parties know that. The U.S. Trustee asks that this stipulation cover criminal sentencing as well as actions taken pursuant to the Advance and Confirmation Orders. I am mystified by this request. The last time I looked, criminal sentencing was an action performed by a judge, not by the defendant being sentenced. Moreover, the judge acts pursuant to her Article III authority and the criminal laws of the United States, not as a result of any Plan of Reorganization confirmed by a Bankruptcy Court. So I do not understand how Purdue's being sentenced could be taxed to the Debtor as an action taken in furtherance of the Plan for equitable mootness purposes. The U.S. Trustee does not offer any explanation for this aspect of his request. The fact that the Effective Date cannot occur until eight days after the sentencing does not make the sentencing an action undertaken pursuant to the Plan, or the Advance Order or the Confirmation Order. And should the judge decide to order restitution pursuant to the Mandatory Victim's Restitution Act, she will be doing so on the authority of 18 U.S.C. § 3363A. I thus see no reason to grant the request; I do not even understand it. As for the request for weekly updates: that is an entirely new request for relief. It is denied.. 75	ORDER CONSOLIDATING NEWLY-DOCKETED APPEALS AND ADDRESSING OTHER MATTERS: 1. I received three new assignments from the Assignment Committee this week: the long-awaited appeal by the State of Vermont has finally been docketed, as have two pro se appeals. Those three actions - 21 cv 8548, 8557 and 8566 - are hereby consolidated with all other pending appeals under the master number 21 cv 7532. Appellants are on the same schedule for briefing imposed by the court - which makes the appellants' briefs due tomorrow. I take it on faith that Vermont is aware of the schedule and will be prepared to file a brief tomorrow. If the prose appellants are filing briefs on appeal, they can have until Friday, October 29, 2021. If anyone knows of any other anticipated appeal, please let me know as soon as possible. 2. I am getting caught up as fast as I can, but friends, I need a glossary. You all talk in abbreviations (NOAT, DMP) and I am spending as much time trying to figure out what those abbreviations mean (I assume NOAT is Net Operating Asset Trust, and I think DMP means Distributing and Manufacturing Parties - please correct me if I am wrong) as I am reading transcript. Would the Debtors please assemble a master list of abbreviations that have been used in this case to save me a little time? 3. I just want to advise the parties that I remain more than theoretically interested in exactly what kinds of opioid-related claims have been or could be asserted against persons or corporations covered by the Shareholder Release at issue on this appeal who are not themselves officers, directors or agents of one or more of the Debtor corporations. I hope that in your briefing, but certainly by the time of oral argument, you can identify for me some claims (preferably actual claims, but if not then hypothetical claims) as to which the defendant would have no claim on the Debtors' estates, but which are being released under the challenged third-party release. 4. Thinking ahead to November 30: before I	10/21/2021

	impose an oral argument schedule on the parties I will listen to your suggestions. However, heed all of the following: there will be only one day of oral argument, limited to six hours total - three hours for ALL appellants, three hours for appellees. I will have read all of your briefs and digested all of your written arguments. Everyone will want to talk; everyone cannot talk. Think carefully about how you want to allocate your time, because if people start to get redundant I will cut you off. Finally, the week before argument I will very likely give you some idea about what issues I want to talk about - what would be helpful to me in crafting an opinion - and I hope you will tailor your remarks accordingly. 81	LETTER addressed to Judge Colleen McMahon from Ellen Isaacs, dated 10/21/21 re: My contacting you is for clarification. I filed a timely appeal on 10/1/21. Subsequently, I learned you held a hearing which I was never notified about. I accidently found out about your hearing just prior to Judge Drain's omnibus hearing. Note, I have never received due process by any of the parties through the Bankruptcy proceedings despite certification of said documents being sent. Hence, I was unable to file objections in a timely manner and denied Due Process etc. Please advise as to what is going on. I cannot provide the documents which the debtors are demanding that I may want attached to my appeal or prepare and submit a brief with no knowledge of what is going on due to lack of Due Process the attorney's waiting until the 11th hour to respond etc. Document filed by Ellen Isaacs.	10/21/2021

140	SCHEDULE FOR ORAL ARGUMENT: Counsel, after listening to your session before the very indulgent Judge Drain yesterday, I think I had better set some rules for our oral argument on November 30, as I intend to be much less indulgent. We will begin at 9:00 AM and proceed as follows: Appellants to have from 9:00-11: 15 to present argument. We will program a short break into that period. You can divide the time as you would like. But at 11: 15, appellants are done. The figurative little red light goes off and everyone sits down. Just like the Court of Appeals. I will hear the pro se litigants from 11: 15-11 :30. They will be appearing remotely. We will break for lunch from 11 :30-12:30. I realize that is on the early side, but we have a shortage of court reporters and they will need a significant break. So will I. Debtors and the other plan proponents have from 12:30-2:45 to present their argument. Again, we will program a short break into that time; and again, you can divide the time as you wish. And again, the little red light goes off at 2:45 and everyone sits down. I don't necessarily want reply argument/rebuttal. I want an hour at the end, from 3:00-4:00, for my own purposes. I may ask to hear rebuttal; I may simply want to ask additional questions. You can anticipate a hot bench; my clerks and I are deeply immersed in the record and the relevant cases. In fact, on Monday, November 29, I will probably send out some questions that you should be prepared to address. At 4:00 PM, we will be through with oral argument. We will adhere strictly to these time limits. You should plan your arguments accordingly. I don't need a lot of exposition or background at oral argument. The briefs I have read are excellent and set out appellants' positions quite well. I have no reason to believe that the Debtors' briefs and those of their allies will be any less thorough or effective in presenting their position. There are fascinating legal issues to work through and that is how we should spend most of our time together. Furthermore, it is not my impression that there is much dispute over Judge Drain's findings of fact; it seems to be his conclusions of law that divide the parties. But since appellants are arguing that the Bankruptcy Court lacks subject matter or constitutional jurisdiction over certain aspects of the Confirmation Order, they should be prepared to argue to me as though Judge Drain's findings of fact and conclusions of law in those respects were a Report and Recommendation to the district court. Appellees should be prepared to respond accordingly. While I see that there is a little extra time cushion after yesterday's proceedings, I probably won't be able to take advantage of it. I am starting a two week criminal trial on Tuesday, December 7, and I have a full calendar on Monday, December 6. So while it is not impossible that that you will have to wait until shortly before December 20 for a decision, it is highly unlikely. If I can get a decision out before I have to start my criminal trial, I will do so. I certainly intend to try. (Signed by Judge Colleen McMahon on 11/10/2021) Filed In	11/10/2021

171	QUESTION FOR COUNSEL: Counsel, rather than continue to look for a needle in the haystack that is your record, I will simply ask you the following: is there, anywhere in this massive record, information comparable to that contained in the Declaration of Richard Collura about the decade PRIOR to January 1, 2008? In particular, I am looking for information that would correlate with Mr. Collura's paragraph 12 - specifically, (i) the amount of Total Net Cash Distributions Paid to or for the Benefit of the Affiliated Entities and/or Taxing Authorities during any period prior to January 1, 2008, and (ii) the amount of any such Net Cash Distributions that was paid in taxes, as opposed to being distributed to the various Sackler entities. If you could either point me to the right place or confirm that there is no such information in the record, I would be most grateful. The briefs are, as predicted, uniformly excellent and very thought provoking. My list of questions is growing longer, so I look forward to meeting with you on November 30. 211	QUESTIONS FOR ORAL ARGUMENT: McMahon, J.:The purpose of this order is to provide counsel with questions I would like answered at oral argument. I have read and digested all the excellent briefs and I do not need to rehash everything that has been said in those papers. What I do need is answers to the following questions:1.Is there a difference among the Sacklers and their various entities in terms of standard of review of the validity of the releases? Specifically, the director Sacklers, or the involved Sacklers, versus the uninvolved Sacklers?2.If I conclude that Judge Drain should have made certain findings but did not do so, am I free to review the record and make those findings or do I have to send it back to him?3.For reasons best known to Judge Drain, he did not inquire about the law relating to contingent claims that might be asserted by the Sacklers in connection with the various suits brought by the Attorneys General of the objecting states. I am requiring each objecting state and the district of Columbia, and Seattle if this is relevant, to present me with a	11/26/2021

	supplemental written brief a very brief written brief that answers the following questions:(a)Under the law applicable to the claims brought by your attorney general against the Sacklers, is there a bar on indemnifying an individual tortfeasor for conduct that is found to violate that law? I believe the relevant law is Delaware law, but people have cited New York law and other laws and I want a clear analysis of the law that is applicable to each of the Appellants claims. Is there any provision legal or contractual under the LPAs that would prohibit the advancement of defense costs in such a case? Can they be recouped if the individual is found liable in the lawsuit? (b)Under the law of YOUR STATE, is there clear law indicating either that there is a right to contribution from a joint tortfeasor, or that there is no right to contribution from a joint tortfeasor, in connection with a violation of the statute under which your attorney general has sued the Sackler officers/directors/managers? Please answer the question and cite me to the relevant statutes and/or cases and/or treatises. (c)Under the law of YOUR STATE, is there a limitation on insurance coverage in connection with suits brought by the attorney general to enforce laws of the sort that the Sacklers are being sued on here? California plainly has such a limitation, which also eliminates the duty to defend. Does YOUR state have anything similar? If so, where can that limitation be found. And if there is no such limitation, what is the law in YOUR state concerning recoupment of insurance coverage (including but not limited to defense costs) if an individual is found to have violated the law?You can bring the briefs to the oral argument. But I want them no later than Tuesday. I want to discuss this issue. For each objecting state. New York, by the way, is not an objecting state, so I do not want to discuss New York law. I will happily discuss Delaware and Connecticut law if the law in your state points to the law of the state(s) where the corporation is a citizen, or if (as in the LPAs) it is the governing law for purposes of indemnification.4.OK, I am back to my original question: aside from the statutory unfair trade practices lawsuits brought by the states against the Sacklers, what claims have actually been asserted against the Sacklers that are covered by the Section 10.7 release as finally modified by Judge Drain? Who has asserted them? Aside from the objecting pro se litigants, do we know under what states laws particular individuals have asserted these claims? Are they common law or statutory claims?5.Assuming Judge Drain had authority to release third party non-debtor claims, does that authority extend to third party claims that Judge Drain could not release, except with the consent of the parties, as against Purdue pursuant to the Code claims for fraud or willful misconduct? In other words, does the fact that a claim would have a conceivable effect on an estate extend to claims that a bankruptcy court could not release if that claim were asserted against the bankrupt itself?6.The any conceivable effects test says that if the OUTCOME of a case will have any conceivable effect on the res of the estate, the bankruptcy court has subject matter jurisdiction over the claim. That would seem to cover a so-called contingent claim a claim for advancement of litigation expenses if
--	---	--

	there is a reasonable legal basis for asserting such a claim. But how does the contingent claim (for indemnity, contribution, insurance) that is asserted in connection with a case whose OUTCOME would not have any conceivable effect on the estate bring the underlying claim within the bankruptcy courts jurisdiction. If the objecting states are correct, then the OUTCOME of the claims they are asserting against the Sacklers will not have any impact on the estate, because of they win the Sacklers will have to pay the fines out of their own pockets. But the argument appears to be that because the Sacklers will assert a right to indemnification, or will demand that their litigation costs be fronted, the states claims will have an impact on the res of the estate. That logic escapes me.7.Debtors set out a four-part test for what claims are subject to release. See brief at p. 24. As I see it, factor 3 means that claims for which no indemnity or insurance coverage is available (as a matter of state law) and for which a controlling individuals liability is non-derivative (independent of his liability by virtue of his role as a director or manager, or of the corporations liability) are NOT RELEASED. If that is correct, then what are we doing here? Because is that not a concession that the claims being asserted by the objecting states are not in fact being released?8.In their briefs the Sacklers say that the claims against the non-director/manager Sacklers that are covered by the release are limited to claims in their status as transferees I assume, as recipients of funds that were taken out of the corporation over the decade prior to the withdrawal of Sacker family members from company management and the initiation of discussions about a possible bankruptcy (2007-18). In other words, as defendants on possible fraudulent conveyance claims. Exactly what language in the release makes that clear? 9.Am I correct that the release as it was ultimately approved by Judge Drain does not cover a claim against Susie Sackler (a person I invented to stand for all the Sacklers) if she gave her roommate who had a backache a bottle of Oxycontin from her private store and the roommate became addicted as a result? 10.How can you insist that the independent claims that exist against certain of the Sacklers under state law, as a matter of state law, are being channeled to a trust for resolution and distribution, when as a matter of fact no distributions will be made on account of the independent claims against the non-debtor? I mean, if a claim is going to be extinguished for exactly nothing, can you really call that channeling? 11.What is the truth about D&amp;O insurance 2005-15? Was there any? If Judge Drain made a factual finding that insurance could be impacted, it has to rest on evidence that there existed insurance policies covering the relevant period. If he just said insurance could be impacted in a situation where there was no evidence that any insurance existed, that would be clear error. So where is the evidence? (I am not particularly interested in the period prior to 2007, because of the releases). 12.Can you explain to me what NewCo is going to do? I thought Purdue Pharma was being reorganized as a public benefit corporation that would administer abatement programs. Now I see that it is going to manufacture drugs. Would someone please explain this to me? Who will be employed by NewCo? In what

	capacities? Are people going to be laid off?13.Does the restitution required in the criminal case under the Victims Rights Act come out of the bankruptcy pot? Can someone explain to me how the pot of money is going to be divided up and what the bottom-line total pot in the confirmed plan is going to be?14.I understand that if I end up affirming Judge Drain, I will have to address all of the many objections to his order that have been interposed. But supposed I conclude that he was wrong about something. Suppose I conclude that he lacked statutory authority to impose the releases (I emphasize I have made no such decision; I am posing a hypothetical). How many of the issues that you have raised do I need to reach in that event? Can I stop there? I understand my obligations if I find there is a Stern v. Marshall problem, but suppose I jump straight to Metromedia and conclude that his analysis of that case is wrong will I have erred if I didnt reach other issues first? I want to make it clear that I have not decided anything yet, but I am trying to figure out, for example, whether I have to rule on the Canadian claims or the notice issues if for some other reason I conclude that Judge Drain should not have confirmed a plan with those releases in it?BY ECF TO ALL PARTIES (Signed by Judge Colleen McMahon on 11/26/2021). 216	MOTION FOR SANCTIONS AGAINST DAVIS POLK. Document filed by Ellen Isaacs.(sc) (Entered: 11/29/2021)	11/29/2021
217	LETTER addressed to Judge Colleen McMahon from E. Isaacs dated 11/24/21 re: Please be advised that NYLAG finally called me back today and sent me a copy of your Statement dated 11/22/21 etc. This is a notice that your statement on record is incorrect. In this statement, you erroneously depicted that the Pro Se Appellants requested to appear by telephone for oral arguments. I did not request to appear by phone. In fact, I have sent in a letter and motion to the contrary. I have requested ADA services which you have never addressed. This is a violation of Title II of The American Disability Act. 220	LETTER MOTION for Oral Argument (Request for Dial-In) addressed to Judge Colleen McMahon from Robert M. Tuchman dated November 29, 2021. 227	NOTICE. There will be a "LISTEN ONLY" number at which people who are not at the courthouse can listen to tomorrow's oral argument: 888-363-4749, access code 9054506. This number can be used by attorneys who are not coming to the court house, as well as member of the press (although we are saving a few seats in my courtroom and in our overflow space for press) and public. This line will be muted; it may not be used for any party to appear remotely. Participants dialing in are reminded that video or audio	11/29/2021

	recording of court proceedings is prohibited by law. The pro se appellants who will be appearing remotely should dial in to the private number that was sent to them separately by email. Do not dial into the listen only number in the first paragraph of this notice, or you will not be able to present your argument to the court. We have also obtained a second overflow courtroom for non-speaking lawyers and members of the public. The overflow rooms are 23A and 15A. As you might imagine, demand for overflow space in connection with the Maxwell trial has made it impossible to obtain any more space, despite our best efforts. I am grateful to the District Executive and his staff for their efforts to make as much space available to us as possible. 232	RESPONSE to Motion re: 216 MOTION for Sanctions. Response of the Debtors to Ellen Issacs' Motion for Sanctions Against Davis Polk. Document filed by Purdue Pharma L.P...	11/30/2021
234	SCHEDULE FOR FURTHER BRIEFING: At the close of argument yesterday I invited the parties to weigh in in writing on a question I raised at the end of the day. Because it had been a long day, and because we had discussed so much, the question was inelegantly phrased. The issue is this: In Metromedia, the Second Circuit cautioned against the approval of a release of third-party claims against a non-debtor because the granting of such releases is subject to abuse. And in Manville III, the Circuit indicated that the possibility of abuse was heightened in situations where the non-debtors condition their financial contribution to the debtor's estate on such releases. In re Johns-Manville Corp., 517 F.3d 52, 66 (2d Cir. 2008). From 1995-2007, Purdue only "upstreamed" enough money to the Sacklers to allow them to pay taxes and retain a relatively modest dividend for themselves. According to information provided by the Debtor, the Sacklers used 90% of Purdue's upstreamed earnings were used to pay. taxes; just 10% of those distributions were retained by the family. Purdue kept the rest of its earnings in treasury. From 2008-2018, this changed. During that period only 44% of the money that Purdue upstreamed to the Sacklers was needed to pay taxes on Purdue's earnings. 56% of those distributions were retained by the family. This change - regardless of what occasioned it -- resulted in Purdue's having far less in its treasury when it declared bankruptcy than would have been the case had the family adhered to the prior distribution	12/1/2021

	pattern. I am struggling with whether this is something that a court can/should take into account in deciding whether the releases on which the Sacklers conditioned their financial contribution to the Debtors' estate are "abusive" in the Metromedia/Manville III sense - especially in light of evidence in the record that the Sacklers were concerned about litigation risk during those later years and were being advised to adopt an "aggressive" plan of cash distribution during that period. I can't find any guidance in prior cases because, as far as I can tell, nothing remotely similar happened in any prior case. And as I told you yesterday, I don't think this has anything to do with whether the distributions to the Sacklers qualify as fraudulent conveyances. I would very much appreciate your weighing in on this issue, both on its merits and on what it might mean in terms of the need for a remand to Judge Drain. As to the latter question, would your answer be different if there were a Stern v. Marshall problem (which is different from whether there is a subject matter jurisdiction problem - I think the Debtor has pretty much resolved that issue to my satisfaction)? Finally, while I doubt that there is much of anything that anyone has to say on the statutory authorization issue that has not already been said, if, after yesterday's argument, you have thought of some new argument, feel free to bring it to my attention. I don't need (or want) additional briefing on any other issue. I would appreciate having your thoughts by next Monday morning at 9 AM at the latest. I would like to promise you an opinion next week, but I simply cannot, although I will try. Please bring me up to date on the various deadlines that are presently in force. 237	ORDER DENYING MOTION FOR SANCTIONS denying (216) Motion for Sanctions in case 7:21-cv-07532-CM. Pro se appellant Ellen Isaacs, on Behalf of Patrick Ryan Wroblewski, filed a motion for sanctions against Davis Polk, dated November 25, 2021, seeking $17 billion in sanctions. (Dkt. No. 216). Davis Polk filed a response to this motion on November 30, 2021. (Dkt. No. 232). For the reasons set forth in the Debtors' response (id.), the Court agrees that the motion is meritless and should be DENIED. The Clerk is directed to close the motion at Docket Number 216.. 277	ORDER DENYING MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE SUPPLEMENTAL BRIEF denying (271) Letter Motion for Leave to File Document in case 7:21-cv-07532-CM. Appellee The Raymond Sackler Family has filed a motion for leave to file a supplemental brief (Dkt. No. 271 ). The Sacklers wish to rebut certain "misstatements of the record" allegedly made by Appellants the States of Washington, Connecticut, Delaware, Rhode Island and Vermont in their supplemental brief. Purdue and the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors of Purdue oppose the motion on the grounds that no one deserves a sur-reply in this case and the matters of record are clear. (Dkt. No. 276). The Court does not need further briefing. The motion for leave to file any further briefing is DENIED. The Clerk is directed to close the motion at Docket Number 271. 279	DECISION AND ORDER ON APPEAL: For the foregoing reasons, the Bankruptcy Court's Confirmation Order and related Advance Order must be vacated. This decision leaves on the table a number of critically important issues that were briefed and argued on appeal principal among them, whether the Section 10.7 Shareholder Release can or should be approved on the peculiar facts of this case, assuming all the other legal challenges to their validity were resolved in Debtor's favor. But sufficient unto the day. This and the other issues raised by the parties can be addressed if they need to be addressed-which is to say, if this ruling is reversed. This constitutes the decision and order of the court. This is a written opinion. (Signed by Judge Colleen McMahon on 12/16/2021) Filed In Associated Cases: 7:21-cv-07532-CM et al.
